Develop Your Charisma to Enhance Your Corporate Effectiveness

If you have a Sales team that needs a bit of a boost, or you've decided this is the year to concentrate on making your mark in your career, personal life or both; then it's time to get yourself or the key members in your team, an Audience with Charisma!

Nikki Owen, a leading expert on charisma and confidence, has announced her 2010 dates for her groundbreaking Audience with Charisma seminars. In addition to three events at Shakespeare's Globe in London, there will for the first time be five Regional two day courses making it more accessible for those based in and around Bristol, Brighton, Birmingham, Harrogate and Glasgow.

Nikki's unique training programme has been developed for leaders, managers, trainers and coaches to enhance their personal impact for increased corporate effectiveness. Speaking about her Seminars, Nikki Owen said: "Charismatic leaders exhibit the tendency to inspire greater levels of support and loyalty from others, resulting in an ability to create higher performing teams by building stronger relationships. This course is all about finding and bringing out your full charismatic potential, whilst remaining authentic and therefore believable. This is a special combination of attractiveness and presence that commands a level of trust and attention that will gain you a significant advantage for finding success in both your work and personal life."

The two day course is a multi - faceted programme where delegates will explore some of the most innovative techniques and exercises including Quantum Physics, Emotional Intelligence, Neuro Linguistic Programming, Kinesiology and Reiki, Dowsing, Time Line Therapy and Behavioural Modelling. The methods taught on the seminar have been developed by Nikki on her 32 year study with celebrities and corporate leaders and have been inspired and blended from a number of sources.

So unusual and inspiring is the seminar, Nikki was recently invited to develop a special 'programme' for a brand new Television show called Kitchen Sink to Catwalk which will broadcast for the first time on March 9th on the BIO channel. A taster of the programme can be viewed, along with more information about her 2010 Seminars on Nikki's website www.audiencewithcharisma.com.

Note

Nikki Owen has dedicated twenty five years to development of individuals working at all levels of large international organisations - ranging from sales professionals to board members, country leaders and senior managers. Nikki is the creator of the award winning development toolkit - The Sales Activator® that won universal acclaim for 'changing the face of learning in the future'. She has developed and implemented over 150 different customised learning solutions for organisations across all sectors and has a reputation for outstanding levels of innovation and creativity.

Following a 32 - year study into charisma and whether it can be replicated in others, Nikki developed and delivered her first charisma seminar held at Shakespeare's Globe Theatre in 2008 and was subsequently invited to feature in a brand new TV series - Kitchen Sink to Catwalk. Nikki has discovered a way to increase an individual's level of charisma within two days and provide tangible evidence of this increase. Nikki's techniques including The Self-Esteem Gift Box™, The Symbol of Star Quality™ and Transcendental Drivers™ are at the frontiers of learning and development.

Nikki is a Master Practitioner and Certified Trainer of Neuro Linguistic Programming, a Reiki Level 2 Practitioner, Energy for Life Practitioner, Certified Trainer in Timeline Therapy and Hypnosis and qualified Fire Walking Instructor.
